

LYON COUNTY AUDITORS OFFICE
November 13, 2024

ROCK RAPIDS, IOWA

Chairman Jerry Birkey convened the adjourned session with Vanden Bosch, Altena, Scholten, and Herman present. Motion carried assumes unanimous vote unless otherwise stated.

The Friends of Blood Run (Steve Simons and Jim Zangger) and Gerald Schnepf, representing the Oneota Archival And Research Center project council, met with the Lyon County Board of Supervisors to provide an update on the project. Jen Smit, Lyon County Economic Development Director was also present. Schnepf updated the Board on progress being made on the project in western Lyon County at the Blood Run National Historic Landmark west of Granite. The project is moving forward, with the potential for land acquisition coming up and needing attention. The land is in the National Historic Landmark, nationally significant, and valuable in telling the story of Blood Run. The Board was presented with information on the potential land acquisition and the role the county may play in the plans at Blood Run. The Board thanked them for coming.

There being no further business there was a motion by Vanden Bosch, seconded by Altena to adjourn. Motion carried.
